Japanese peace team due today

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI, Dec 31: A seven-member Japanese Aichi Peace Committee delegation arrives on a two-day visit of the city on Friday.

The delegation comprising survivors of Hiroshima will participate in various functions and programmes, according to a statement of the Action Committee Against Arms Race.

The visitors will open an anti-nuclear photo exhibition at the PMA House on Friday afternoon. They will also participate in a workers meeting at the Hall Institute, at Cantonment Station, on Saturday afternoon.

The delegation, led by Miyuki Kamezawa, comprises Yasuo Endo, Takashi Matsui, Shin Nishimoto, Takatsugu Honda, Ai Takada and Tomoko Fukuda.